Dreyfus Prime Money Market Fund – Class A

Fund Goal
The fund seeks as high a level of current income as is consistent with the preservation of capital and the maintenance of liquidity.

Investment Approach
To pursue its goal, the fund normally invests in a diversified portfolio of high-quality, short-term, dollar-denominated debt securities, including: securities issued or guaranteed as to principal and interest by the U.S. government or its agencies or instrumentalities; certificates of deposit, time deposits, bankers' acceptances and other short-term securities issued by domestic or foreign banks or thrifts or their subsidiaries or branches; repurchase agreements, including triparty repurchase agreements; asset-backed securities; municipal securities; domestic and dollar-denominated foreign commercial paper, and other short-term corporate obligations, including those with floating or variable rates of interest; and dollar-denominated foreign government obligations. Normally, the fund invests at least 25% of its assets in domestic or dollar-denominated foreign bank obligations.

Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses of a mutual fund carefully before investing. To obtain a prospectus, or summary prospectus, if available, that contains this and other information about the fund, contact your financial advisor or visit dreyfus.com. Read the prospectus carefully before investing.

You could lose money by investing in a money market fund. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. The fund may impose a fee upon the sale of your shares or may temporarily suspend your ability to sell shares if the fund’s liquidity falls below required minimums because of market conditions or other factors. An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The fund’s sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the fund, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time.

The fund’s short-term corporate and asset-backed securities holdings involve credit and liquidity risks and risk of principal loss. Dividends, if any, are payable pursuant to the fund’s stated policy.
