CUSTOMER IDENTIFICATION PROGRAM NOTICE IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, all financial institutions are required by law to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each individual or entity that opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask you for your name, address, taxpayer or other government identification number and other information, such as date of birth for individuals, that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see identification documents such as a driver's license, passport or corporate authority documents. In addition, in accordance with the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act (Act), transactions associated with unlawful internet gambling are prohibited. Specifically, the Act prohibits any person engaged in the business of betting or wagering from knowingly accepting payments in connection with the participation of another person in unlawful internet gambling. BNY Mellon customers must not initiate or receive wire transfers, checks, drafts or other debit/credit transactions that are restricted by the Act. For more information, please refer to: <http://www.federalreserve.gov/newsevents/press/bcreg/bcreg20081112a1.pdf>.

If required information is missing, your application may be rejected.

If this Power of Attorney is executed in the State of New York:

CAUTION TO THE PRINCIPAL: Your Power of Attorney is an important document. As the "principal," you give the person whom you choose (your "agent") authority to spend your money and sell or dispose of your property during your lifetime without telling you. You do not lose your authority to act even though you have given your agent similar authority.

When your agent exercises this authority, he or she must act according to any instructions you have provided or, where there are no specific instructions, in your best interest. "Important Information for the Agent" at the end of this document describes your agent's responsibilities.

Your agent can act on your behalf only after signing the Power of Attorney before a notary public.

You can request information from your agent at any time. If you are revoking a prior Power of Attorney by executing this Power of Attorney, you should provide written notice of the revocation to your prior agent(s) and to any third parties who may have acted upon it, including the financial institutions where your accounts are located.

You can revoke or terminate your Power of Attorney at any time for any reason as long as you are of sound mind. If you are no longer of sound mind, a court can remove an agent for acting improperly.

Your agent cannot make health care decisions for you. You may execute a "Health Care Proxy" to do this.

The law governing Powers of Attorney is contained in the New York General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. This law is available at a law library, or online through the New York State Senate or Assembly websites, www.senate.state.ny.us or www.assembly.state.ny.us.

If there is anything about this document that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer of your own choosing to explain it to you.

The undersigned hereby authorizes _____ Agent (whose signature appears below) as his or her agent and attorney in fact to buy, sell (including short sales) and trade in stocks, bonds, options contracts, and any other securities and/or contracts relating to the same on margin or otherwise in accordance with your terms and conditions for the undersigned's account and risk and in the undersigned's name, or number on your books. The undersigned hereby agrees to indemnify and hold you harmless from and to pay you promptly on demand any and all losses arising therefrom or debit balance due thereon.

In all such purchases, sales or trades you are authorized to follow the Agent's instructions in every respect concerning the undersigned's account with you; and he or she is authorized to act for the undersigned and in the undersigned's behalf in the same manner and with the same force and effect as the undersigned might or could do with respect to such purchases, sales or trades as well as with respect to all other things necessary or incidental to the furtherance or conduct of such purchases, sales or trades including but not limited to the execution of any agreements necessary to effect those transactions or in connection with the account.

The undersigned hereby ratifies and confirms any and all transactions with you heretofore or hereafter made by the aforesaid Agent or for the undersigned's account.

This authorization and indemnity is also a continuing one and shall remain in full force and effect until revoked by the undersigned by a written notice addressed to you, delivered to and received by you at your office at Dreyfus Brokerage Services, 144 Glenn Curtiss Blvd., Uniondale, NY 11556, but such revocation shall not affect any liability in any way resulting from transactions initiated prior to such revocation. This authorization and indemnity shall enure to the benefit of your present firm and of any successor firm or firms irrespective of any change or changes at any time in the personnel thereof for any cause whatsoever, and or the assigns of your present firm or any successor firm.

The undersigned has read the foregoing in its entirety before signing.

You may not use the principal's assets to benefit yourself or anyone else or make gifts to yourself or anyone else unless the principal has specifically granted you that authority in this Power of Attorney or in a Statutory Gifts Rider attached to this Power of Attorney. If you have that authority, you must act according to any instructions of the principal or, where there are no such instructions, in the principal's best interest. You may resign by giving written notice to the principal and to any co-agent, successor agent, monitor if one has been named in this document, or the principal's guardian if one has been appointed. We are paid by you and, sometimes, by people who compensate us based on what you buy. Therefore, our profits, and our salespersons' compensation, may vary by product and over time.

3. Description of Account. Your Dreyfus Lion Account® (the "Account") with MBSC Securities Corporation is an asset management account which consists of three parts: (a) a conventional brokerage account for the purchase and sale of securities (the "Brokerage Account") which is either a Cash or Margin Account, or both; (b) a choice of Sweep Money Market Funds; and (c) a Card/Check Account if You elect these options. Your Brokerage Account and Sweep Funds are carried by Pershing LLC ("Pershing") as clearing broker pursuant to a clearing agreement with MBSC Securities Corporation.

Pershing and MBSC Securities Corporation may accept, without inquiry or investigation, (i) orders for the purchase or sale of securities and other property on margin or otherwise, and (ii) other instructions concerning Your account. Notices to You concerning Margin Account requirements or other matters related to Your Account usually will go through MBSC Securities Corporation; however, Pershing may contact You directly if required by market conditions, time constraints or other circumstances.

4. Sweep Fund. Except as noted below, any amounts received by Us are invested in the General Treasury & Agency Money Market Fund, Class A (or such other eligible sweep fund you may choose) subject to prior payment by You and on Your behalf of any outstanding margin loan balances, Card overdrafts or other debit items arising from Checks or Card usage, or authorization payments. You hereby acknowledge that You have received and read a copy of the Prospectus of the Sweep Fund You selected, containing a more complete description of it and its operation. In addition, please note that the General Treasury & Agency Money Market Fund, Class A will be the only eligible sweep option available to retirement accounts.

Pershing will automatically redeem sufficient shares of the Sweep Fund to pay for all securities transactions, Checking and Card transactions. If You intend to send funds to settle securities transactions, We must receive those funds on the business day before the settlement date to prevent an automatic redemption. Pershing will redeem Sweep Fund shares to pay for Checking and Card transactions on the date We post the transaction to Your account. We will not send confirmations for Fund transactions in Your account.

5. Card/Check Services

a. Supplemental Services Agreement. All transactions involving Card/Check Services are outlined in the Supplemental Services Agreement with Pershing and the Banks. If there are any inconsistencies between The Dreyfus Lion Account® Agreement and the Supplemental Services Agreement, as applicable the Card/Check Services, the Supplemental Services Agreement shall control.

6. Our Right to Restrict or Terminate Account. For our protection against credit risks and other conditions, We may, without prior notice, decline Your orders or instructions, or We may place trading restrictions on Your account.

You also understand that We may cease all Account services provided to You for any reason, in Our discretion, including but not limited to the following: (1) if You exceed Your Authorization Limit; or (2) if We determine that Your use of the account is inconsistent with investment purposes; or (3) if We determine that We no longer wish to offer The Dreyfus Lion Account® to You. In the event that Your Dreyfus Lion Account® is terminated, it may be converted into an account which will remain subject to the remainder of this Agreement.

Pershing, MBSC Securities Corporation, the Banks or You may terminate this Agreement, including the use of Checks or Cards, if applicable, at any time. You shall remain responsible for authorized charges which arise before or after termination. If the Agreement is terminated, We may redeem all Sweep Fund shares. You shall promptly return all Cards and unused Checks to Us. Failure to do so may result in a delay in complying with Your instructions regarding the disposition of assets.

7. Lien. All of Your securities, commodities and other property which Pershing, MBSC Securities Corporation, or any of their affiliates, may at any time be carrying for You, or which may at any time be in Our possession or under Our control, including, but not limited to, individual Dreyfus mutual fund accounts not held by Pershing, shall be subject to a general lien and security interest in Our favor for the discharge of all Your indebtedness and other obligations to Us, without regard to Our having made any advances in connection with such securities and other property and without regard to the number of accounts You may have with MBSC Securities Corporation. In enforcing Our lien, We shall have the discretion to determine which securities and property are to be sold and which contracts are to be closed.

Securities and other property held in your retirement account(s) maintained by Pershing, which may include IRAs or qualified plans, are not subject to this general lien and such securities or other property may only be used to satisfy the undersigned's indebtedness or other obligations to MBSC Securities Corporation and/or Pershing related to your retirement account(s).

8. Credit Investigation, Negative Credit Report and Other Information Sharing. You authorize Us to exchange credit information about You and Your account with others. As required by law, You are notified that any negative credit report reflecting on Your credit record may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if You fail to fulfill the terms of Your credit obligations. You authorize Us to obtain credit reports and other credit related information about You at account opening and thereafter for purposes of determining Your initial and ongoing eligibility for the account or credit. Upon request, We will state the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished any credit report obtained. You authorize MBSC Securities Corporation, all other BNY Mellon companies (including Dreyfus companies), all mutual funds advised by a BNY Mellon company (including the Dreyfus Family of Funds) and all distributors of those funds to share information about Your relationships with any of these organizations or with unaffiliated third parties. This includes all information that any of these organizations have or get about You or Your account relationships with them. This authorization will continue in effect for as long as You have at least one open account with any of these organizations.

If We extend, update, review or renew your credit, We may request a new credit report without notifying you.

9. Minimum Required to Open and Maintain an Account. A minimum of $10,000.00 in cash, marginable securities, or a combination of both is initially required to open your account. Although We do not require a specific minimum balance be maintained on Your account, We reserve the right to request additional funds or securities be deposited whenever the asset value of Your account falls below 50% of the initial minimum requirement. If, after We have notified You that additional assets must be deposited, the account is not brought back up to at least 50% of the initial minimum requirement in a reasonable time period, We reserve the right to terminate the account at which time You agree to return any Cards or Checks previously issued to You.

10. Liquidation. If, in Our discretion, We consider it necessary for Our protection to require additional collateral or in the event that a petition in bankruptcy or for appointment of a receiver is filed by or against You, or an attachment is levied against Your accounts, or in the event of Your death, We shall have the right to sell any or all securities, commodities and other property in the accounts We have established for You, whether carried individually or jointly with others, to buy any or all securities, commodities and other property which may be short in such accounts, to cancel any open orders and to close any or all outstanding contracts, all without demand for margin or additional margin, notice of sale or purchase or other notice or advertisement. Any such sales or purchases may be made at Pershing's discretion on any exchange or other market where such business is usually transacted, or at public auction or private sale and Pershing may be the purchaser for its own account. It is understood that a prior demand, or call, or prior notice of the time and place of such sale or purchase shall not be considered a waiver of Pershing's right to sell or buy without demand or notice.

11. Margin Requirements, Credit Charges, and Deposits. You will at all times maintain such securities, commodities and other property in Your accounts for margin purposes as We shall require from time to time via a margin call or other request and the monthly debit balances or adjusted balances in Your accounts with Pershing shall be charged, in accordance with Our practice, with interest at a rate permitted by the laws of the State of New York. It is understood that the interest charge made to Your account at the close of a charge period will be added to the opening balance for the next charge period unless paid. In regard to margin calls, whether for maintenance or any other margin call, in lieu of immediate liquidations, Pershing through MBSC Securities Corporation may permit you a period of time to satisfy a call. This time period shall not in any way waive or diminish Pershing's right in its sole discretion, to shorten the time period in which you may satisfy the call, including one already outstanding, or to demand that a call be satisfied immediately. Nor does such practice waive or diminish the right of Pershing and/or MBSC Securities Corporation to sell out positions to satisfy the call, which can be as high as the full indebtedness owed by you. Margin requirements may be established and changed by Pershing or MBSC in its sole discretion and judgment without notice to you. You should contact MBSC Securities Corporation for the latest information on margin requirements.

12. Pledge of Securities. All securities, commodities and other property now or hereafter held, carried or maintained by Pershing in Our possession in any of the accounts of the Account Holder may be pledged, repledged, hypothecated or rehypothecated by Pershing from time to time, without notice to the Account Holder, either separately or in common with other such securities, commodities and other property for any amount due in the accounts of the Account Holder, or for any greater amount and Pershing may do so without retaining in Our possession or control for delivery a like amount of similar securities, commodities or other property.

13. Payment of Indebtedness Upon Demand. You shall at all times be liable for the payment upon demand of any debit balance or other obligations owing in any of Your accounts with Us and You shall be liable to Us for any deficiency remaining in any such accounts in the event of the liquidation thereof, in whole or in part, by Us or by You; and You shall make payments of such obligations and indebtedness upon demand.

14. Liability for Costs of Collection. The reasonable costs and expense of collection of the debit balance, recovery of securities, and any unpaid deficiency in Your accounts with MBSC Securities Corporation, including, but not limited to, attorney's fees incurred and payable or paid by Us, shall be payable to Us by You.

15. Presumption of Receipt of Communications. Communications may be sent to You at Your current address, which is on file at Our office, or at such other address as You may hereafter give Us in writing; and all communications so sent, whether by mail or otherwise, shall be deemed given to You personally, whether actually received or not.

16. Scope and Transferability. This Agreement shall cover individually and collectively all accounts that You may open or reopen through MBSC Securities Corporation and shall inure to the benefit of Our successors whether by merger, consolidation or otherwise, and assigns, and either MBSC Securities Corporation or Pershing may transfer Your accounts to their successors and assigns, and this Agreement shall be binding upon Your heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns. MBSC Securities Corporation, Pershing or the Banks may assign their responsibilities under this Agreement, in whole or in part, to any subsidiary, affiliate or successor by merger or consolidation, or to any other entity, without notice to You. We are not required to recognize any transfer of ownership of any part of any account until We have received written notice of the transfer in a form satisfactory to Us.

17. Extraordinary Events. To the fullest extent allowable under law, We are not responsible and You agree not to hold Us liable for losses caused directly or indirectly by conditions beyond Our control, including, but not limited to: war, natural disaster, terrorism, government restriction, exchange or market rulings, strikes, interruptions of communications or data processing services, news or analysts' reports, market volatility or disruptions in orderly trading on any exchange or market.

MBSC has implemented and maintains reasonable procedures and systems (including reasonable disaster recovery and business continuity plans and procedures consistent with legal, regulatory and business needs applicable to MBSC's delivery of Services) to safeguard Adviser's records and data and MBSC's records, data, equipment facilities and other property that it uses in the performance of its obligations hereunder from loss or damage attributable to fire, theft, or any other cause, and Dreyfus will make such changes to the procedures and systems from time to time as are reasonably required for the secure performance of its obligations hereunder.

18. Representation as to Capacity to Enter into Agreement. You, if an individual, represent that You are of full age, that unless otherwise disclosed to MBSC Securities Corporation in writing, You are not an employee of an exchange, or of any corporation of which any exchange owns a majority of the capital stock, or of a member firm or member corporation registered on any exchange or of a bank, trust company, insurance company, or of any corporation, firm or individual engaged in the business of dealing either as a broker or as principal in securities, bills of exchange, acceptance or other forms of commercial paper. You further represent that no one except You has an interest in Your Account(s).

19. Joint and Several Liability. If “You” shall consist of more than one individual, Your obligations under this Agreement shall be joint and several. Each of You has authority, acting individually and without notice to any one of You, to deal with MBSC Securities Corporation as fully and completely as if any one of You is the sole account holder. We are authorized to follow the instructions of any one of You and to deliver funds, securities, or other assets in the Brokerage Account to any one of You or upon any one of Your instructions. We are not responsible for determining the purpose or propriety of an instruction we receive from any one of You or for the disposition of payments or deliveries among any one of You. Any notice We send one of You will be notice to all of You.

20. Option Transactions. If at any time You shall enter into any transaction for the purchase or sale of an option contract, You hereby agree to first obtain from MBSC Securities Corporation the then current disclosure statements of the Options Clearing Corporation and further agree to abide by the rules of any national securities association, registered securities exchange or clearing organization applicable to the trading of option contracts and acting alone or in concert, will not violate the position or exercise limitation rules of any such association or exchange or of the Options Clearing Corporation or other clearing organization.

21. Separability. If any provision or condition of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable by any court, or regulatory or self-regulatory agency or body, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision or condition. The validity of the remaining provisions and conditions shall not be affected thereby and this Agreement shall be carried out as if any such invalid or unenforceable provision or condition were not contained herein.

22. Headings Are Descriptive. The heading of each provision of this Agreement is for descriptive purposes only and shall not be deemed to modify or qualify any of the rights or obligations set forth in each such provision.

23. Recording Conversations. For Our mutual protection, You understand, agree, and expressly consent to Our and The Bank’s electronic recordation of any of Your telephone conversations with them and to Our, Pershing’s, Administrator’s and The Bank’s monitoring of Your electronic communications with Us and them, including but not limited to e-mail and facsimile transmission.

24. Role of Pershing; No Advice. You understand that Pershing provides no investment advice nor does Pershing give advice or offer any opinion with respect to the suitability of any transaction or order. You acknowledge that neither Pershing nor MBSC Securities Corporation will provide You with any legal, tax or accounting advice, that Our employees are not authorized to give any such advice and that You will not solicit or rely upon any such advice from Pershing or Our employees whether in connection with transactions in or for any of Your accounts or otherwise. In making legal, tax or accounting decisions with respect to transactions in or for Your accounts or any other matter, You will consult with and rely upon Your own advisors and not Pershing and Pershing shall have no liability therefor. Pershing shall not be responsible or liable for any acts or omissions of MBSC Securities Corporation or its employees. 25. Representations and Amendments. You have received a copy of the Sweep Funds’ prospectus and this Agreement. You agree that We shall have the right to amend this Agreement, by modifying or rescinding any of its existing provisions or by adding any new provision, at any time without notice to You. Any such amendment shall be effective as of a date established by Us. You understand there may be additional documentation required by applicable law or the policies and procedures of Pershing, MBSC Securities Corporation, or the Banks. You agree to promptly comply with any such requests for additional documents.

26. This Agreement and its Enforcement Shall Be Governed by the Laws of the State of New York.

ANY CONTROVERSY BETWEEN YOU AND US SHALL BE SUBMITTED TO ARBITRATION BEFORE THE FINANCIAL INDUSTRY REGULATORY AUTHORITY.

NO PERSON SHALL BRING A PUTATIVE OR CERTIFIED CLASS ACTION TO ARBITRATION, NOR SEEK TO ENFORCE ANY PREDISPUTE ARBITRATION AGREEMENT AGAINST ANY PERSON WHO HAS INITIATED IN COURT A PUTATIVE CLASS ACTION; OR WHO IS A MEMBER OF A PUTATIVE CLASS WHO HAS NOT OPTED OUT OF THE CLASS WITH RESPECT TO ANY CLAIMS ENCOMPASSED BY THE PUTATIVE CLASS ACTION UNTIL; (I) THE CLASS CERTIFICATION IS DENIED; (II) THE CLASS IS DECERTIFIED; OR (III) THE CUSTOMER IS EXCLUDED FROM THE CLASS BY THE COURT. SUCH FOREBEARANCE TO ENFORCE AN AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF ANY RIGHTS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT STATED HEREIN.

THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK GOVERN.

29. Shareholder Vote of Loaned Securities. In the event the undersigned's securities have been loaned by Pershing on the record date of a shareholder vote involving those securities, the undersigned agrees that the undersigned's vote may be reduced to reflect the total amount of the undersigned's securities loaned by Pershing.

DISCLOSURE OF CREDIT TERMS

30. Amendment and Modification of Agreement. MBSC Securities Corporation or its successors or assigns may unilaterally change or modify the terms and conditions of this Agreement and will send You a notice of the change to the extent required by law or regulation.

31. Order Flow. Please refer to the terms and conditions section of your statement for a description of Pershing's payment for order flow practices. MBSC Securities Corporation participates with Pershing in such practices.

32. Cash Accounts. Cash accounts may be subject, at Our discretion, to interest on any debit balances resulting from failure to make payment in full for securities purchased, from proceeds of sales paid prior to settlement date or for other charges that may be made to the account.

33. Margin Accounts. Purchases of securities on credit, commonly known as margin, enable You to increase the buying power of Your equity and thus increase the potential for profit—or loss. A portion of the purchase price is deposited when buying securities on margin and Pershing extends credit for the remainder. This loan appears as a debit balance on Your monthly statement of account. Pershing charges interest on the debit balance and requires You to maintain securities, cash or other property to secure repayment of funds advanced and interest due. Interest will be charged for any credit extended to You for the purpose of buying, trading or carrying any securities, for any cash withdrawals made against the collateral of securities, or for any other extension of credit. When funds are paid in advance of settlement on the sale of securities, interest will be charged on such amount from date of payment until settlement date. In the event that any other charge is made to the account for any reason, interest may be charged on the resulting debit balances. In order to add Margin to an existing account, You acknowledge that You must execute and will be bound by the terms and conditions of the Margin Account Agreement and, if applicable, the Option Agreement and Approval Form with Us as well as by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

34. Interest Rates. Interest charged on any debit balances in cash accounts or credit extended in margin accounts may be up to 3.00 percentage points above the Pershing Base Lending Rate. The Pershing Base Lending Rate will be set with reference to commercially recognized interest rates, industry conditions relating to the extension of credit and general credit market conditions. The Pershing Base Lending Rate will change without prior notice. When the Pershing Base Lending Rate changes during an interest period, interest will be calculated according to the number of days each rate is in effect during that period. If the rate of interest charged to You is changed for any other reason, You will be notified at least 30 days in advance.

35. Interest Period. The Interest Period begins on the 20th of each month and ends on the 19th of the following month. Accordingly, the interest charges for the period as shown on Your monthly statement are based only on the daily net debit and credit balances for the Interest Period.

36. Method of Interest Computation. At the close of each Interest Period during which credit was extended to You, an interest charge is computed by multiplying the average daily debit balance by the applicable schedule rate and by the number of days during which a debit balance was outstanding and then dividing by 360. If there has been a change in the Pershing Base Lending Rate, separate computations will be made with respect to each rate of charge for the appropriate number of days at each rate during the Interest Period. The interest charge for credit made to Your account at the close of the Interest Period is added to the opening debit balance for the next Interest Period unless paid.

With the exception of credit balances in Your short account, all other credit and debit balances in all of Your accounts will be combined daily and interest will be charged on the resulting average daily net debit balances for the Interest Period. If there is a debit in the cash account (type 1) and there is a Margin account (type 2), interest will be calculated on the combined debit balance and charged to the Margin account. Any credit balance in the short account is disregarded because such credit collateralizes the stock borrowed for delivery against the short sale. Such credit is disregarded even if You should be long in the same position in Your Margin account: i.e., short against the box.

If the security which You sold short (or sold short against the box) appreciates in market price over the selling price, interest will be charged on the appreciation in value. Correspondingly, if the security which You sold short depreciates in market price, the interest charged will be reduced since Your average debit balance will decline. This practice is known as "marking to market." The daily closing price is used to determine any appreciation or depreciation of the security sold short.

If Your account is short shares of stock on the record date of a dividend or other distribution, however such short position occurs, Your account will be charged the amount of dividend or other distribution on the following Business Day.

37. General Margin Policies. The amount of credit which may be extended by Pershing and the terms of such extension are governed by rules of the Federal Reserve Board and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). Within the guidelines of these rules and subject to adjustment required by changes in such rules and Our business judgment, Pershing establishes certain policies with respect to Margin accounts. If the market value of securities in a Margin account declines, Pershing may require the deposit of additional collateral. Margin account equity is the current market value of securities and cash deposited as security less the amount owed Pershing for credit extended at its discretion. It is Our general policy to require Margin account holders to maintain equity in their Margin accounts of the greater of 30% of the current market value or $3 per share for common stock purchased on margin. Pershing applies other standards for other types of securities. For example, securities may be ineligible for margin credit from time to time. For information with respect to general margin maintenance policy as to municipal bonds, corporate bonds, listed United States Treasury notes and bonds, mutual funds and other securities, as well as information about the eligibility of particular securities for margin credit, please contact MBSC Securities Corporation. Notwithstanding the above general policies, Pershing reserves the right, at its discretion, to require the deposit of additional collateral and to set required margin at a higher or lower amount with respect to particular accounts or classes of accounts as it deems necessary. In making these determinations, Pershing may take into account various factors including but not limited to (i) issues as to Your securities such as, among others, the liquidity of a position and concentrations of securities in an Account, (ii) considerations as to Your status, including but not limited to a decline in creditworthiness, (iii) the size of the Account, (iv) the general condition of the market, (v) considerations as to the ability of Pershing to obtain financing, and (vi) regulatory interpretations or guidance. If You fail to meet a margin call in a timely manner, some or all of Your positions may be liquidated.

38. Deposits of Collateral, Lien on Accounts and Liquidation. In the event that additional collateral is requested, You may deposit cash or acceptable securities into Your Margin account. If satisfactory collateral is not promptly deposited after a request is made, Pershing may, at its discretion, liquidate securities held in any of Your accounts. In this connection, pursuant to Our Agreement, Pershing retains a security interest in all securities and other property held in Your accounts, including securities held for safekeeping, so long as any credit extended remains outstanding.

39. Assignment of Pershing's Rights Under This Agreement to MBSC Securities Corporation. You agree that any rights that Pershing has under this agreement, including but not limited to the right to collect any debit balance or other obligations owing in any of your accounts, may be assigned to MBSC Securities Corporation so that MBSC Securities Corporation may collect from you independently or jointly with Pershing, or enforce any other rights granted to Pershing under this agreement.

40. Callable Securities. Securities which are held for Your account and which are in “street name,” or are being held by a securities depository, are commingled with the same securities being held for other customers of MBSC Securities Corporation and for customers of Pershing's other correspondents. Your ownership of these securities is reflected in Our records. You have the right at any time to require delivery to You of any such securities which are fully paid for or are in excess of margin requirements.

The terms of many bonds allow the issuer to partially redeem or “call” the issue prior to maturity date. Certain preferred stocks are also subject to being called by the issuer. Whenever any such security being held by Us is partially “called,” We will determine through a random selection procedure, as prescribed by the FINRA rules, the ownership of the securities to be submitted for redemption. In the event that such securities owned by You are selected and redeemed, Your account will be credited with the proceeds.

Should You not wish to be subject to this random selection process, You must instruct MBSC Securities Corporation to have Pershing deliver Your securities to You. Delivery will be effected provided, of course, that Your position is unencumbered or had not already been called by the issuer as described, prior to receipt by Pershing of Your instructions. The probability of one of Your securities being called is the same whether they are held by You or by Pershing for You.

41. Options Exercise Assignments. Exercise assignment notices for options contracts are allocated among short positions pursuant to a procedure which randomly selects from all short options positions, including positions established on the day of the assignment, those contracts which are subject to exercise. A more detailed description of this random allocation procedure is available on request. All short options positions are liable for assignment at any time.

42. Lost Securities. If Your periodic customer statement indicates that securities were forwarded to You and You have not received them, You should notify Us immediately. If notification is received within 120 days after the mailing date, as reflected on Your periodic statement, replacement will be made free of charge. Thereafter, a fee for replacement may apply.

43. Loan Consent. By signing the application, the undersigned acknowledges that securities not fully paid for by the undersigned may be loaned to Pershing or loaned out to others, and as permitted by law, certain securities in your account, may be used for, among other things, settling short sales and lending the securities for short sales, and as a result Pershing and MBSC Securities Corporation may receive compensation in connection therewith. Pershing does not lend fully paid for securities without your written permission. Please contact MBSC Securities Corporation with any questions. Fully paid for securities held in a cash account (unless otherwise agreed in a separate written agreement) and fully paid for securities held in a margin account in which there is no debit balance are not loaned.
